QUARTER

Hello, fellow travelers!

My name is Anne Moore and I have been a Women of Nebraska/Women of the Midwest member since 2018. I was lucky enough to go on the trip to Greece that year and had an unforgettable experience! My next trip will be to Iceland in October. I already have my boots bought!

I first heard about Women of Nebraska/Women of the Midwest when my friend, Lora Black, posted that she was going to be one of their Ambassadors. My partner and I have different travel preferences so I had been looking for another way to safely travel in the US and overseas. This intimate group travel concept was everything I was looking for and so much more. Thanks to the expert planning and our extremely knowledgeable tour guide, Vasiliki, who is from the Greek island of Naxos, my experience was fun, cozy, and luxurious. I learned so much about Greek history and culture, ate amazing food and felt pampered and safe the whole time. These are the benefits of travel with a group that is planned by women for women!

My continued membership with Women of Nebraska/Women of the Midwest means I will stay updated on all the trips that are coming up. Since the group size for each one is limited, I can get access to the trips I want to take before the slots are filled. And I love being able to stay in touch with the amazing women who have become friends!

By the way, if I had to pick my favorite memory from the trip to Greece, it would be the extravagant lunch we had under a white tent in a sunny olive grove in the countryside somewhere between Corinth and Nafplion. We talked and laughed and ate and drank wine and got to know each other. Can't wait to go back someday!

Sincerely,

Anne Moore
