FOOTSTEPS OF APOSTLE PAUL

Add-on: 3-Night Island Cruise

September 20-29, 2023

Dear Women of the Midwest,

I'm Sally Dunham, the Ambassador for our journey to Greece and our tour of the beginnings of Christianity. We will start on the path in the footsteps of the Apostle Paul as we arrive in Thessaloniki - Greece's second-largest city. Our small group of 20 is joined upon arrival by our private guide for this marvelous adventure.

We will wander amongst the ruins of the Roman, Byzantine, and Ottoman empires as we travel the roads where Paul, Silas, Lydia, and countless other names we know from the Bible, had traversed.

Our footsteps lead us to many of the UNESCO World Heritage sites; Delphi, the Oracle, and Apollo's Sanctuary, one of the 7 Wonders of the Ancient Greek World. We travel "up" to the rock monasteries at Meteora, where you'll have spectacular views.

We eventually arrive in Athens, where the first thing you will see is the Acropolis and the marble Parthenon sparkling under the Greek sun. We will get to see the daily changing of the guards in front of the Presidential Palace and Tomb of the Unknown Soldier, the Panathenaic Stadium, where the first Olympics of the modern era were held, in Greece's capital city.

Our final destination from Paul's travels is the Ancient city of Corinth, once a bustling Roman trading city between the Ionian and Aegean Seas. We will stroll through the ruins on marble-paved streets, see where Paul was put on trial, and be held spellbound by the recounting of history by our guide, Vicki.

Shopping, dining, and just getting to experience Greek culture await our group. Whether it is the famous Corinthian currants, wine from local vineyards, olive oil, goat cheeses, sesame seed and honey energy bars, and foods from the Mediterranean diet, you will return home with your stomach and heart filled with the generosity and spirit of the Greek people.

And you can add a 3-night cruise extension to this fabulous adventure, where you'll visit the islands of Mykonos, Patmos, and Santorini. Ephesus and Crete are also included. Add on this trip extension and see just how blue the waters around Greece really are! You won't want to come home!

Make plans for September 2023 for a trip of a lifetime. I hope to see you on this fabulous Women of the Midwest tour.

Sincerely,
Sally Dunham, Women of the Midwest Ambassador

Traveling to Greece

Our wonderful adventure begins as we take an overnight flight to Athens, Greece. Enjoy in-flight entertainment and meal service as you start your dream vacation.

September 21, 2023 - Thursday

Athens - Thessaloniki

Welcome to Athens! Upon arrival, we meet our private tour guide, and off we are to Thessaloniki. We will relax and kick back and enjoy a seaside lunch along the beautiful route. We are arriving in Thessaloniki and our centrally located hotel in the early evening. Thessaloniki is the second-largest city in Greece and the most important center of the area; a port city of the Aegean Sea. It is a modern metropolis bearing the marks of its stormy (and glorious) history with a cosmopolitan character that gives it a special beauty and charm. Evidence of Roman, Byzantine, and Ottoman history remains, especially around Ano Poli (the upper town). During Roman times, Thessaloniki became an important crossroads on the Via Egnatia, where the road running east from Rome to the provinces of Pontus and Asia met the road running north from Athens to the Danube River. The ruins of Roman Emperor Galerius' 4th-century palace include the Rotunda, which has been both a church and a mosque. Much of Thessaloniki was destroyed in the Great Fire of 1917, and the rebuilt 20th-century city has a modern European layout. A light dinner is served before we take a good rest and get rid of our jet lag. An exciting journey is ahead of us! B (during flight) | L | D

September 22, 2023 - Friday

Amphipolis, Kavala & Philippi

After a rich breakfast, we head out to visit the beautiful city of Kavala (ancient Neapolis). We travel along the Via Egnatia road (constructed by the Romans in the 2nd century BC) and drive through Apollonia. We make a stop at Amphipolis to admire the magnificent stone-carved Lion of Amphipolis, which stood alongside the old Via Egnatia at the foot of the plateau where the Apostle Paul visited. Kavala, the place where Paul first landed and stepped onto European ground, is easily spotted from far away. At the peak of the old-town proudly stands the fortress. The fortress is a landmark of Kavala and one of its most stunning sights, as well as the peak of the peninsula of Panagia (mother of Jesus), dominated by the Acropolis of Kavala. We continue on to Philippi, a Roman garrison town and the chief city in the province of Macedonia. Here, Paul won his first European convert, established the first church in Europe, and baptized a woman named Lydia. We will visit the marketplace (where Paul and Silas were brought before the rulers) and the cistern, which tradition identifies as the place where Paul was imprisoned. Return to Thessaloniki in time for dinner. B | L

"Setting sail therefore from Troas, we made a direct voyage to Samothrace and the following day to Neapolis" (Acts 16:11) "After meeting with the believers at Lydia's house, Paul and Silas leave Luke behind in Philippi" and travel along the Via Egnatia through Amphipolis and Apollonia." (Acts 17:1)

September 23, 2023 - Saturday

Thessaloniki

After a hearty breakfast, we become acquainted with this great city where Paul wrote two epistles to the ancient Thessalonians. Built by King Cassander and named after the sister of Alexander the Great, the city flourished under the Byzantine Empire, and its most important buildings date from those days. Today it is considered the Greek "Queen of the North." Our city tour takes us along the waterfront to the massive White Tower and the nearby Triumphal Arch of Galerius, built in 303 AD. We also see St. Demetrios Church with its valuable mosaics and frescoes and then drive to the upper town, which offers a marvelous view of the city. The site where the monastery of Vlatadon was built is believed to be where Jason's house once stood and where Paul was accommodated during his visit to Thessaloniki. Lunch, served at one of the local taverns, is nothing but a meal for a Queen! The evening is at leisure. B | L

"Paul came to Thessaloniki with Silas and following his usual custom, he went to the Synagogue where he used the Jewish scriptures as the source for his preaching." (Acts 17:2)

September 24, 2023 - Sunday

Veria & Aigai/Vergina - Kalambaka

Breakfast is served before we head out to experience yet two more stunning sites. Our first stop is Veria. During the night, Paul and Silas left Thessaloniki for Veria with the help of Christians. They walked for a while on Via Egnatia Road through the lush green fruitful, and beautiful area. Veria was a bustling city with a flourishing synagogue. As soon as they got there, Paul and Silas visited the synagogue. It is said that the Jews of Veria were more polite than those in Thessaloniki and heard with great interest Paul preaching the Holy Gospel. Today, at the spot where Paul, the Apostle, preached the Christian faith, there is a religious monument, the so-called "St Paul's Tribune." In this spot, Roman plates date back to the 1st century, and according to tradition, Paul was standing on them while preaching. The monument is decorated with impressive mosaic murals. We continue to Aigai, a UNESCO World Heritage Site. The city of Aigai, the ancient first capital of the Kingdom of Macedonia, was discovered in the 19th century. The most important remains are the monumental palace, lavishly decorated with mosaics and painted stuccoes, and the burial ground with more than 300 tumuli, some of which date from the 11th century B.C. One of the royal tombs in the Great Tumulus is identified as that of Philip II, who conquered all the Greek cities, paving the way for his son Alexander and the expansion of the Hellenistic world. Lunch is served in a local tavern before we continue our journey to Kalambaka and Meteora. The evening is spent in the shadow of the impressive rocks; this is truly a unique place to overnight. B | L

Delphi

September 25, 2023 - Monday

Meteora - Delphi

After a filling breakfast, we are ready to experience Meteora, the second-biggest and most important group of monasteries in Greece after those in Mount Athos (which can be visited by men only). The first mention of their history is traced back to the 11th century when the first hermits settled here. The rock monasteries have been characterized by UNESCO as a unique phenomenon of cultural heritage, and form one of the most important stations in the world. Lunch is served by Kyria (Mrs.) Ketty, an experience in itself. This afternoon we drive to Delphi. B | L

September 26, 2023 - Tuesday

Delphi - Athens

In the peaceful morning light, we travel to visit the Pan-Hellenic sanctuary of Delphi, set at the foot of Mount Parnassos in a spectacular landscape. Considered for many centuries the cultural and religious center of the Hellenic world, it is also home to the "Oracle" and Apollo's Sanctuary, one of the 7 wonders of the ancient Greek world.

Our last stop today is at the magnificent UNESCO World Heritage site of Hosios (Saint) Lucas. A stunning monastery decorated with mosaics on a gold background and superb marble works. Sitting peacefully under the oak tree, we steal a quiet moment for a sweet surprise before heading off to the heart of Athens. As the sun sets behind the Parthenon, we finish our day with a great meal and an evening at leisure. B | D

September 27, 2023 - Wednesday

Athens

After a delightful breakfast, we head out to discover Athens, one of the most glorious cities in the world and the cradle of western civilization as we know it today. Founded seven thousand years ago, the city flourished in the fifth century BC when Athenian democracy was practiced in the Bouleterion (council chamber) and open discussion was encouraged in the Agora (marketplace). Paul - who was trained as a young man in the art of debating in Greek - would have been delighted at an opportunity to spread the Good News of Jesus in the cultural heart of the ancient world, among its numerous pagan temples, altars, statues, and monuments. Paul was invited to speak to the Areopagus (the Athenian council), which met on Mars Hill. It was only a short distance from the foot of the Acropolis, dominated by the Parthenon and built as a temple to Athena in the 5th century BC. We continue by motorcoach through the city to see the House of Parliament at Syntagma Square, the soldiers in their picturesque uniforms guarding the Presidential Palace, and the Tomb of the Unknown Soldier. We will also see the Library, the University, the Panathenaic Stadium, where the first Olympics of the modern era were held, the Temple of the Olympian Zeus, and Adrian's Arch. Enjoy a late lunch at a typical Greek tavern, and the evening is yours to enjoy more of the city. Don't miss old-town (Plaka) with its numerous shops (open till late!), enjoy people-watching, or take a stroll around the Acropolis hill at sunset; it doesn't get much prettier! B | L

Ancient Corinth

"People of Athens! I see that in every way you are very religious. For as I walked around and looked carefully at your objects of worship, I even found an altar with this inscription: to an unknown god. So you are ignorant of the very thing you worship - and this is what I am going to proclaim to you." (Acts 17:22-23)

September 28, 2023 - Thursday

Ancient Corinth

After breakfast, we take a short drive to Ancient Corinth.

The ancient Greek city of Corinth was destroyed by the Romans in 146 BC but was rebuilt a century later by Julius Caesar. In the time of Paul, Corinth was a busy Roman trading city on the narrow strip of land between the Ionian Sea and the Aegean Sea. It had two harbors - Lechaëum on the Gulf of Corinth to the west and Cenchraea, on the Aegean Sea, to the east. It made huge profits by taxing cargoes that were transported overland between the two ports to avoid the dangerous waters around the Peloponnese. The first attempt to build a canal across the isthmus at Corinth was started by Emperor Nero in 66 AD but was soon abandoned. The present-day Corinth Canal was completed in 1893 (we will make a stop to admire the impressive canal). During our visit, we will walk along the Lechaion Way - a marble-paved road linking the port of Lechaëum with the city. On reaching the heart of the settlement, the road passed through an imposing Propylaion (ceremonial gateway) before citizens climbed a flight of steps leading up into the agora (marketplace). Here, overlooked by the council chamber and the colonnaded stoas (covered walkways with shops), Paul was placed on a stone platform before the Roman proconsul and accused of breaking the religious laws by members of the Jewish synagogue. The area is rich in vineyards, and lunch today is enjoyed at a local winery while learning about the mythical Nemea-Agiorgitiko wine and the world-famous Corinthian raisins (currants). On our way back to Athens, we will make a stop at Kechries, the port where Paul stopped during his second missionary journey, where he had his hair cut to fulfill a vow, probably the Nazirite vow.
