IRRESISTIBLE ITALY

Rome - Tuscany - Florence - Venice

with Women of the Midwest!

April 17-28, 2023

Dear Women of the Midwest, Ciao!

Piazzas, Gondolas, and the Tuscan hillsides, "oh my!"

I'm Lora Black, and I invite you along on a tour of Italy in 2023! Give yourself the gift of travel and immerse yourself in the Italian way of life. Join me and go back in time to where art and culture began - the birthplace of the Renaissance! Florence! That is day five of our tour, but first, let me tell you how our adventure begins ...

We start our journey by arriving in Rome for a 3-night stay and where we will follow the path of the ancient Romans. You will have the opportunity to try your hand at making fresh pasta and tiramisu from secret recipes passed on for generations! While we tour the Eternal City, we walk, eat, and we get to tour the famous Vatican museums, where you will see Michelangelo's Pieta, housed in St. Peter's Basilica. We make our way to the Sistine Chapel, where it took Michelangelo four years to paint the frescoed ceiling.

We are next on our way to the Tuscan region of Italy. The revered patron saint of animals and founder of the Franciscan order, Saint Francis of Assisi's birthplace will be explored, and we will spend our next four nights in the heart of Tuscany. Ah, Tuscany! Acres of olive groves and vineyards provide us with many tasting opportunities!

Located a short drive away is Florence, the home of the Renaissance, which started here in the early 15th century. Don't forget to shop the famous leather, Florentine paper, jewelry, and handmade ceramic goods that Florence is renowned for. And take time out to "slow down," grab a gelato and just sit outside and watch the world pass by!

Next, we are on to the Queen of the Adriatic, Venice, the floating city. A walking tour takes us to the legendary Piazza San Marco, St. Mark's Basilica, the Doge's Palace, and the Rialto Bridge, and we can't visit Venice without taking a Gondola ride and a visit to the islands of Murano, home of glassworks, and Burano, the home of handmade lace.

Reserve your place now for this fabulous trip to Italy. Come, join me, solo or two-by-two.

Bellissima!

The morning is dedicated to olive oil! After breakfast, we take a short drive to Reggello to tour of the Santa Téa Olive Oil Mill.
