

IRRESISTIBLE ITALY 2019

TRAVELERS OF THE QUARTER

Beth Schmit:

As we travel life's journey, we have many activities and happenings that leave a lasting impression and memory for us to ponder and enjoy in our later days. I was able to spend twelve days with two of our three daughters touring Italy. What a huge blessing it was sharing Italy with them and learning and experiencing the culture of that great country.

Our guide, Valeria, was outstanding and gave us such informative presentations of each stop along the way. Everything was top-notch, and our bus driver got us to each stop safely and without any worries. We were able to wine and dine and participate in some cooking classes. The places we stayed and laid our heads at night were beautiful and comfortable. They were able to accommodate us, so the three of us could stay in one room.

Everyone on our tour became friends - it was fun learning a little about each of them and sharing parts of our lives with each other. Due to social media, we can share what's going on in our lives two years later and continue our friendship.

It was so awesome to share this time with my girls and make so many beautiful memories with them so far from home. Our tour was very well-planned and organized, and I would highly recommend doing a multi-generational tour - you won't regret it.

Sincerely, Beth
