

MACKINAC ISLAND

LAID-BACK LAKESIDE

with Women of the Midwest

September 3-10, 2025

WOMEN OF THE MIDWEST

Travel Solo Together

Dear Women of the Midwest,

I warmly invite you to join me on a delightful Laid-Back Lakeside Tour, where we will explore three enchanting destinations! Our adventure begins in the stunning lakeside town of Traverse City, Michigan, surrounded by breathtaking landscapes and hopes for a touch of fall color. After we arrive at our lovely hotel in Traverse City, we will gather for a welcome dinner at Michigan's oldest continuously operated restaurant. While there, we will also visit a charming winery and have time for some leisurely shopping.

Next, we will uncover the hidden gem of Petoskey, one of the most picturesque spots along Lake Michigan, where you won't want to miss the incredible dining options. On the way to Petoskey we take a whimsical tour of the Mushroom Houses in Charlevoix, led by a local expert. This is sure to be a highlight of the tour!

Our grand finale brings us to Mackinac Island for a three-night stay at the outstanding Grand Hotel, celebrated as one of the 20 most iconic hotels on earth. Here, you can bask in the ambiance of the Victorian Age, sip a drink on the longest porch in the world, and recall scenes from "Somewhere in Time," filmed right here. With no cars allowed on the island, we will arrive by ferry and enjoy a charming horse-drawn carriage ride up to our hotel. You will have plenty of time to explore the serene paths on foot or by bicycle. And let's not forget the island's famous fudge perfect for bringing a sweet treat back home to share!

Whether you love shopping, dining in style, or simply savoring a quiet moment on the porch, this trip is designed for you. Come join me, solo or two-by-two, for this grand and historic adventure with Women of the Midwest. It promises to be a truly magical experience!

Sincerely,
Sally Dunham

Traverse City

Our wonderful adventure begins as we fly to Traverse City, Michigan. We will meet our 34-passenger motorcoach and our Michigan-based Tour Director Nancy, and in just 15 minutes we will be at our lovely hotel in the heart of this small city. We can drop our luggage and head straight out walking to lunch or shopping. The world is our oyster. Tonight we will take a leisurely stroll to our welcome dinner at Sleder's Family Tavern, the oldest continuously operating restaurant in Michigan. The rest of the evening could be for a lakeside stroll or a drink at the rooftop retreat back at the hotel. D

Wineries

Today, we will ease into our vacation with a delightful breakfast at the hotel, savoring local flavors to energize us for the adventures ahead. After our meal, we will embark on a leisurely late-morning departure for a full day of winery exploration! As we wind our way through the picturesque countryside, the stunning landscapes will take our breath away - rolling hills, lush vineyards, and sparkling views of the water will create a perfect backdrop for our journey. We will visit a selection of charming wineries, each offering a unique experience. The day promises not just great wine but also wonderful conversations and the chance to connect with fellow travelers. This evening, you can dine on your own or with new friends at a local restaurant. B | L eateries, indulge in shopping, or take a peaceful stroll along the harbor to soak in the beautiful views. Your tour director will be on hand to share recommendations and answer any questions you may have about the area's offerings.

But our lovely day is just getting started! In the afternoon, we will head to our new accommodations at the lovely Stafford's Perry Hotel in Petoskey, Michigan. This historic gem will truly knock your socks off with its elegant decor and warm hospitality. And while your socks are off, why not dig your toes into the sand at the nearby beach?

Tonight, you will have the chance to explore one of the many delightful dining options downtown. Whether you are in the mood for upscale cuisine or a cozy bistro, Nancy and Sally will surely secure reservations for you. Get ready for an unforgettable evening in this charming lakeside town! B

Charlevoix - Petoskey

After breakfast, we will board our motorcoach for a short drive to the vibrant city of Charlevoix! There, an expert guide will lead us on a tour of Earl Young's captivating mushroom houses, each uniquely designed to blend with the landscape and create a magical, fairytale-like atmosphere. At the end of our tour, you will enjoy some free time downtown. You can savor a leisurely lunch at one of the charming local Chill Day!

After your included breakfast, enjoy Petoskey. Perched at the top of Michigan's Lower Peninsula on Little Traverse Bay, it is celebrated for its natural beauty, breathtaking sunsets, and the historic Gaslight Shopping District. Surrounded by stunning views of the Bay, Petoskey is perfect for outdoor activities - whether you enjoy walking, hiking, biking, or simply relaxing on the beach. The Gaslight District is marked by its charming green light posts. Here, Let's go Grand!

you will find a delightful variety of shops where you can uncover treasures for friends or tasty treats to enjoy on the spot. Perhaps grab a sandwich at a local shop and head to the beach with friends. Alternatively, if you would rather save your appetite, tonight we will dine in style on local fare at Stafford's Perry. This dinner is sure to be a highlight of your tour. B | D

Mackinac Island

Today we will have a leisurely breakfast and a late morning departure from our hotel. Heading even further north, we will take in beautiful countryside vistas and stop for lunch on our way to Mackinaw City, where we hop on the ferry to our new digs at the Grand Hotel on Mackinac Island. Our horse-drawn carriages will roll us slowly uphill for a grand entrance to the Grand Hotel! One of the wonderful aspects of Mackinac Island is that it truly has something for everyone. If you prefer a low-key stay, you can enjoy fresh food and chilled wine while savoring an afternoon on the longest porch in the world. If you're feeling more adventurous, there are over 70 miles of hiking and biking trails to satisfy your inner outdoorsy spirit. The rest of your day is yours! B | L

Mackinac Island

Breakfast is served! Today, let your imagination run wild, a full day in stunning Mackinac Island to do as you wish. The day is free to enjoy and explore the quaint town and its simple life. Eighty percent of Mackinac Island is parkland, and if a golf cart is too modern for you, how about getting around by horse and buggy or by a rented bike? Don't forget to swing by one (or more!) of the 13 fudge shops downtown. More than 10,000 pounds of fudge are slabbed daily on marble, allowing the fudge to cool evenly and quickly, giving it a unique flavor and creating a great show, too. Or visit the fascinating butterfly conservatory, the Wings of Mackinac, to watch the butterflies eat dried fruits and nectar. A lovely experience! Maybe you prefer to take a carriage tour (tickets provided), which is a fantastic way to see the sites, make mental notes on where to eat and shop, and get a general lay of the land. Your coachman will share historical information as well as information about your new horse friends. Your tour may stop at Arch Rock, where you will see the most beautiful view of the lake through the arch. The Fort is located at the tip-top of a high hill, so this may be a good time to take advantage of the Fort tour if you like. Check to see if you can hop off at Fort Mackinac if you would like to. Then, you may catch a tour carriage (based on space available) back down toward our hotel. In the afternoon, we will meet at the hotel at your appointed time (to be determined) for your Historical Tour of the Grand Hotel. You'll learn all the behind-the-scenes secrets of America's most recognized hotel before enjoying a beautiful dinner at our hotel. B | D

Life in the Village!

Traveling Home

After breakfast, it's time to roll back down the hill in our horse carriage and catch our ferry to the mainland. We will wave goodbye to our wonderful home at the Grand Hotel on Mackinac Island. On the other side of the lake, our motorcoach will drive us back south for lunch on your own enroute and then to the Traverse City Airport for your afternoon flight home. What a wonderful time we've had - a dream come true. B
