And where there is a connection to real food, there is a connection to real life; let's live it up in Greece!

We follow the local pace, sampling the cuisine, the regional brews, and the daily customs. We learn of their colorful history and the people who made it so. From farm to table, we will savor the unique marriage of fresh ingredients and imagination, magically giving birth to delicious mouthfuls to eat and drink.

We will wander amongst the vineyards and wine barrels to sip and taste the exciting wines of ancient varieties. We will explore the myths and lore of legendary rulers, great warriors, and lost civilizations. We will discover unique products like nowhere else in the world, bursting with flavors from lava-rich soil and plentiful sun. We will recreate the recipes of years gone by as we head behind the kitchen door to chop, cook, and indulge.

Relax and unwind as you learn to appreciate an exceptional way of life...the Greek way of life! This is the way travel should taste!

May 4, 2026 - Monday Traveling to Athens

Our charming adventure begins as we take an overnight flight to Athens. Enjoy in-flight entertainment and meal service as you start your Greek dream and "foodie" vacation.

May 5, 2026 - Tuesday Athens

Welcome to Athens! Upon arrival, we will meet our private tour guide, who will accompany us during the entire trip. We are off to experience some of the most incredible sights in history. On our way to Athens, we will stop at Cape Sounion, where the impressive Temple of Poseidon rises above the Aegean Sea. A delightful seaside lunch is served before we reach our hotel. Athens is one of the oldest cities in the world, full of myths, mysteries, and legends. The city is home to many sacred ancient sites, monuments, and landmarks - a fusion of old and new and a buzzing cosmopolitan metropolis. It is one of the most glorious cities in the world and the cradle of Western civilization as we know it today. Founded seven thousand years ago, the city flourished in the fifth century BC when Athenian democracy was practiced in the Bouletarion (council chamber) and open discussion was encouraged in the Agora (marketplace). Check into our hotel for an evening at leisure to relax and unwind. If you are still awake, take an evening stroll by the Acropolis; it's right next door. B (in-flight) | L

May 6, 2026 - Wednesday Athens

After a delightful breakfast, we will head out to discover Athens. A short distance by foot takes us to the Acropolis, dominated by the Parthenon and built as a temple to honor goddess Athena in the 5th century BC. From the top of the hill, you will see the Agora, where Socrates, Plato, and Aristotle strolled. Next, we will visit the stunning Acropolis Museum, where lunch is served. We will continue by motor coach through the city to see the House of Parliament at Syntagma Square, the Tomb of the Unknown Soldier, the Public Library, the University, and the Panathenaic Stadium, where the first Olympics of the modern era were held. The late afternoon and evening are yours to enjoy the city. Don't miss old town Plaka with its numerous shops (open till late!), enjoy people-watching and a local "meze" (plate with small bites) - the best way to taste the local delicacies. B | L

May 7, 2026 - Thursday Corinth Canal - Ancient Olympia

After a hearty breakfast, we board our motorcoach and drive towards Peloponnese. We will stop to admire the canal that connects the Gulf of Corinth with the Saronic Gulf in the Aegean Sea. A local mountain village is the backdrop for lunch, followed by Greek coffee with the best baklava you have ever tasted! We will arrive in Ancient Olympia in the early afternoon and visit the birthplace of the Olympic Games. The Athletes met here for the first time in 776 BC, and this is where the Olympic Torch is lit every two years - before each Summer and Winter Olympics. Indulge in the exceptional aura of Ancient Olympia; it feels like the games are still on. The evening is yours to enjoy and relax. B | L

May 8, 2026 - Friday Honey - Mystras - Gythion

After a rich breakfast, we will take a short drive to a family-owned honey farm at the outskirts of Ancient Olympia. Klio, the owner, will meet us, introduce us to her agricultural activities, and share stories about her grandparents, who made their living from this special farm. We will walk the garden, learn about the secrets of honey production, and taste traditional sweets with honey prepared in front of us. We will continue toward Gythion with a stop at the abandoned fortress of Mystras, a UNESCO World Heritage Site. Once the last stronghold of the Byzantine Empire, today, the stones of its monumental gates, medieval houses, palaces, and churches lay silent. Mystras was called the "Wonder of the Morea," and rises like a dream from another time. Its crumbling palaces, majestic monasteries, and fresco-filled churches cling to the hillside, half-hidden by olive groves and wildflowers. Walking its cobbled paths, you feel the weight of centuries in every step - a sacred silence broken only by the whisper of the wind and the rustle of leaves. Mystras will surprise you! Gythion is our final destination today. Tucked along the sun-drenched coast in the southern Peloponnese, Gythion is a timeless harbor town where myth, history, and natural beauty converge in perfect harmony. Our evening will be bathed in the golden light of the Mediterranean sun as we sip ouzo at a seaside taverna. B | D

May 9, 2026 - Saturday Monemvasia - Nafplion

At the tip of the Peloponnese's first leg lies the unspoiled town of Monemvasia, a Byzantine castle citadel strategically perched on a massive rock protruding from the sea. The history of Monemvasia begins with its name; it derives from the words "moni" and "emvasia," which mean "single passage." The Venetians discovered that the only access to the castle town of Monemvasia was through a paved walkway. Before this walkway was constructed, the only way to enter the town was by boat. Monemvasia is one of the most romantic places in Greece, resembling a Medieval Harry Potter town, exclusively carved into the slopes of a rock. We will have time to explore on our own before lunch is served inside the citadel. In the afternoon, we will drive toward Nafplion, one of the prettiest cities in Greece. You will love the small shops and narrow streets full of life. Take a stroll tonight to admire the illuminated Palamidi, a fortress nestled on the crest of a 709-foot-high hill built by the Venetians. Relax and kick back. B | L

Portara (Gate of Naxos)

May 10, 2026 - Sunday Epidaurus - Nafplion

After a hearty breakfast, we are off to yet another extraordinary place. Our first stop is at a UNESCO World Heritage-listed site, the Ancient Theatre of Epidaurus, a 2,300-year-old stage known for its legendary acoustics from ancient times. This site leaves a special impression as it hosts the roots of all medicine and the cult of the God of Medicine, Asclepius. If you recall, the snake wrapped around the physician staff is today's symbol of the medical profession. It all began in Ancient Epidaurus. Lunch is special and served in the shade of hundred-year-old olive trees. Enjoy the best local cuisine while learning about the "golden liquid" and the importance of olive oil. Tonight, we will taste ouzo, a dry anise-flavored aperitif enjoyed throughout Greece. Some consider it the national drink. B | L | T

May 11, 2026 - Monday Naxos

We will enjoy a laid-back morning before driving to Piraeus, the port of Athens, for our afternoon ferry crossing to the island of Naxos. We will make a quick lunch stop on the way to the port. The namesake capital (also called Hora) is a port town filled with whitewashed, cube-shaped houses and medieval Venetian mansions. The island offers everything from delicious food and local liquors to beautiful white marble, incredible Cycladic scenery, local crafts, and some of the best beaches in Greece. We will experience it all! Our three-night stay in Naxos will be something you will never forget! B | L

May 12, 2026 - Tuesday Taste of Naxos Tour

We will enjoy a late breakfast. Then, we will take a walking tour of Naxos Town (Hora) with tastings of local delicacies: cheeses, citrus liquor (kitron), and sweet pastries. You will fall in love with the picturesque narrow streets and local shops. Enjoy swimming in the crystal-clear waters this afternoon. Tonight, we have a special dinner arranged ...dance lessons included! B | T | D

May 13, 2026 - Wednesday Naxos Island Tour

Enjoy breakfast at our own pace before boarding our motorcoach for an island tour. Experience local villages and stunning scenery. We will also learn the techniques of local ceramics during a visit to a workshop, where we will be introduced to the history of local art and the various types of clay. We will savor lunch at our tour guide's favorite tavern. It doesn't get much better than this. B | L

May 14, 2026 - Thursday Santorini - Oia Sunset

Enjoy your free time in the morning to swim or take a final stroll in Hora. We will embark on a short two-hour ferry ride to Santorini, a truly magical island, a sparkling jewel in the Aegean Sea, famous for its whitewashed houses set against the backdrop of the cobalt blue sea and its black sand beaches. Molded by fire and sea, its majestic cliffs are said to guard the secrets of Atlantis. Cameras ready - this island is picture-perfect! We will check into our hotel, and the afternoon is yours to bask in the golden sunshine, relax, and unwind in one of the most beautiful places in the world. We have arranged a tour of Oia in the evening to enjoy the spectacular sunset, dinner included! B | D

May 15, 2026 - Friday

Santorini - Food & Wine - Cooking Class
We are off to explore the wines and foods of Santorini. We stroll through the ancient vineyards and discover the famous "kouloura," an ancient Phoenician technique for growing grapes in baskets. We will savor four of the island's most remarkable wines and head to the kitchen to broaden our knowledge of Santorini's rich culinary treasures. Using seasonal and locally grown ingredients, our local chef challenges our notions of how certain dishes should look, taste, and smell before we enjoy the results. B | T | C | L

May 16, 2026 - Saturday Santorini - Athens

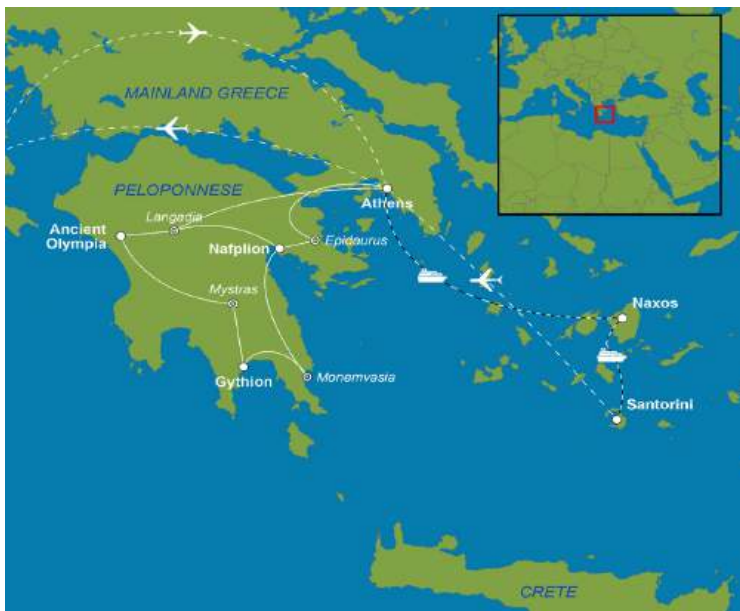

Enjoy a relaxed morning to soak in the last impressions of Santorini. Take a walk along the caldera (volcano), or do your last souvenir shopping. We will board our flight to Athens in the early afternoon and relax at our airport hotel tonight. A light dinner is served while we reflect on all the wonderful memories of a once-in-a-lifetime journey. Eat, Live, and Love Greece! B | D
