PARIS & LONDON

An Elegant Escape

with Women of the Midwest!

November 16-27, 2026

Dear Women of the Midwest,

There is something timeless about Paris and London—two of the world's most beloved cities, rich in history, beauty, and tradition. I am truly excited to invite you to join me as we experience them together in a way that is thoughtful, comfortable, and filled with meaningful moments.

This carefully crafted journey brings together the elegance of Paris and the grandeur of London, offering the perfect balance of iconic landmarks, cultural treasures, and time to simply enjoy where we are. We'll stand before remarkable places like Notre-Dame, the Louvre, Westminster Abbey, and Windsor Castle—sites we've read about and dreamed of seeing. We'll stroll through charming neighborhoods, admire beautiful architecture, and enjoy wonderful meals that reflect the character and flavor of each destination.

As a special bonus, our visit takes place during the holiday season, when both cities are beautifully decorated with sparkling lights, festive displays, and a warm seasonal atmosphere that makes everything feel even more magical—without taking away from the rich cultural experiences at the heart of our journey.

One of the highlights will be traveling between these great capitals aboard the Eurostar, gliding beneath the English Channel—an experience in itself and a reminder of how wonderfully connected our world has become.

What makes this journey especially meaningful is sharing it together. This itinerary has been designed with care, allowing us to explore at an enjoyable pace, with time to relax, reflect, and savor every moment.

I hope you'll join me as we discover Paris and London together, creating memories and friendships that will last long after we return home.

With warmest anticipation,
Lisa Anderson

Traveling to Paris

Your inspiring and delightful journey begins as we board our overnight flight to Paris, France. Settle in, enjoy in-flight entertainment and meal service, and let the excitement build as you embark on your dream adventure. In-flight meals.

November 17, 2026 - Tuesday

Bienvenue à Paris!

Upon arrival, we are warmly welcomed at the airport by our private motor coach and our wonderful English-speaking guide. We begin with a panoramic tour of Paris, the City of Light, with photo stops at the iconic Eiffel Tower and the grand Arc de Triomphe. We also visit the magnificent Notre-Dame Cathedral, stepping inside this treasured symbol of faith and French heritage. Our welcome lunch is at historic Le Procope, Paris's oldest café, established in 1686 in the charming Saint-Germain district. In our private room, we enjoy classic French cuisine while getting acquainted. After lunch, we check in to our hotel. The remainder of the afternoon is yours to relax or enjoy your first stroll through Paris. L

November 18, 2026 - Wednesday

Paris

After a leisurely breakfast, our private coach will bring us into the heart of Paris for a day filled with art, beauty, and unforgettable experiences. Our morning begins at the world-renowned Louvre Museum, once a royal palace and now the most visited museum in the world. We'll explore its most treasured masterpieces, including the enigmatic Mona Lisa, and graceful classical sculptures, and extraordinary works spanning centuries of artistic achievement. Walking through the Louvre is like stepping into the story of human creativity itself. Later, we enjoy a relaxing Seine River cruise, one of the most delightful ways to experience Paris. As we glide along the gentle waters, we'll admire the city's most beloved landmarks. Lunch is served at an elegant and classic Parisian brasserie located near the magnificent Opera Garnier. In the afternoon, we visit the stunning Palais Garnier, Paris's historic opera house, famous for its grand staircase, gilded ceilings, and rich musical heritage. We return to our hotel on foot, enjoying the charm of Paris along the way. The remainder of the day is yours to relax or explore at your own pace. B | L

Parisian Pâtisserie Window

November 19, 2026 - Thursday

Paris at your leisure

Today is yours to enjoy Paris exactly as you wish. After breakfast, step out and embrace the rhythm of the city. You may choose to visit the beautiful Musée d'Orsay, home to some of the world's most beloved Impressionist masterpieces by Monet, Renoir, and Degas, all set within a stunning former railway station. For a truly Parisian experience, consider joining a perfume workshop, where you'll discover the secrets of French fragrance and even create a scent of your own—a lovely and meaningful souvenir. Or perhaps indulge your senses in a hands-on French pastry class, learning how delicate croissants or elegant macarons are crafted, guided by skilled local chefs. You might also enjoy browsing Paris's charming boutiques, elegant department stores, or simply relaxing at a sidewalk café. This evening, we gather once again for a delightful dinner, sharing stories of the day. B | D

November 20, 2026 - Friday

The Palace & Gardens of Versailles

Today we journey just outside Paris to visit the magnificent Palace of Versailles, one of the most extraordinary royal residences in the world. Explore the opulent palace once home to King Louis XIV, the "Sun

Paris Flea Market Treasures

King," and hear fascinating stories of royal life, court traditions, and the grandeur that defined French history. We'll walk through the lavish State Apartments and the breathtaking Hall of Mirrors, where history was made amid glittering chandeliers and gilded elegance. After our guided visit, enjoy time to stroll through the stunning Gardens of Versailles, masterpieces of design with elegant fountains, sculptures, and tree-lined pathways stretching as far as the eye can see. Lunch is served within the palace gardens. We return to Paris in the late afternoon, with time to relax and enjoy the evening at leisure. B | L

November 21, 2026 - Saturday

Champagne Country or Paris at Leisure

Today is yours to enjoy as you wish. You may choose to spend the day shopping in Paris's elegant boutiques and department stores, explore a local antique market, or join an optional excursion to the celebrated Champagne region, one of France's most prestigious and beautiful countryside destinations. For those joining the excursion, we travel to the historic city of Reims, the heart of Champagne and the traditional coronation site of French kings. Here, we visit the magnificent Reims Cathedral, a masterpiece of Gothic architecture, followed by a lovely lunch in town. We then continue to Hautvillers, the charming village where Dom Pérignon, the father of Champagne, perfected the art of sparkling wine. Our journey concludes in nearby Épernay, home to some of the world's most famous Champagne houses. We enjoy a guided visit and tasting, exploring remarkable underground cellars and savoring this celebrated wine at its source. This evening, we reunite for a memorable farewell dinner cruise on the Seine River. As Paris glows under the night sky, we enjoy a delicious meal while drifting past the city's illuminated landmarks—a beautiful and unforgettable farewell to the City of Light. B | D

November 22, 2026 - Sunday

From Paris to London by Eurostar

This morning, we enjoy breakfast before boarding the high-speed Eurostar train to London—an experience in itself. Traveling comfortably beneath the English Channel, we glide from France to England in just over two hours, watching the scenery change along the way. We arrive in London before noon, where our local English-speaking guide warmly greets us at the station. We then enjoy lunch at The Lamb, a historic Bloomsbury pub known for seasonal British cuisine, classic charm, and welcoming atmosphere. This afternoon, we begin discovering London in all its festive splendor. With our guide, we take in the city's most famous landmarks beautifully dressed for the Christmas season. Marvel at the sparkling lights of Oxford Street, admire the elegant window displays at Harrods, and drive past Regent Street, Piccadilly Circus, and Trafalgar Square, where London's magnificent Christmas tree shines brightly. Afterward, we check in to our hotel and enjoy a relaxing evening, soaking in the magic of London at Christmastime. B | L

November 23, 2026 - Monday

London at Leisure

Today is yours to enjoy London at your own pace, with time for shopping, sightseeing, and embracing the festive spirit of the season. You may wish to explore the charming stalls of Borough Market, beautifully decorated for Christmas and filled with seasonal treats, artisan foods, and warm holiday flavors. Another favorite is Covent Garden, where twinkling lights, elegant decorations, and lively street performers create a joyful holiday atmosphere. Festive boutiques

Liberty London — Tudor Elegance

and cafés invite you to linger and savor the moment. You may also wish to visit Liberty London, one of the city's most beloved department stores. Housed in a stunning Tudor Revival building, Liberty is renowned for its beautiful holiday displays, fine fabrics, elegant gifts, and timeless charm. Stepping inside feels like entering a Christmas storybook. B

November 24, 2026 - Tuesday

London's Traditions and Hidden Stories

Today we discover some of London's most fascinating treasures, beginning with a visit to the historic Tower of London, where centuries of royal history, intrigue, and tradition come vividly to life. From there, we continue to beautiful Southwark Cathedral, lovingly decorated for the Christmas season. Here, we enjoy a special guided experience, Women of Southwark – The Untold Story, highlighting the remarkable lives and contributions of women who shaped this historic district. We then enjoy a festive lunch featuring traditional holiday flavors, including a classic mince pie and a warming sherry tasting, offering a true taste of an English Christmas. This afternoon, we visit the renowned Hand & Lock Studio, famous for its exquisite embroidery work, including designs created for royalty, military uniforms, and couture fashion. This behind-the-scenes visit offers a rare glimpse into one of Britain's most respected artisan traditions. This evening, you may join an optional visit to Christmas at Kew Gardens, where dazzling lights create a magical winter wonderland. B | T | L

November 25, 2026 - Wednesday

Royal London and a West End Evening

Today we experience the grandeur and tradition of royal London. Our morning begins with a visit to magnificent Westminster Abbey, where British monarchs have been crowned for nearly 1,000 years. This sacred setting has also been the site of royal weddings, including that of Prince William and Catherine, Princess of Wales. We continue to Buckingham Palace, where we witness the iconic Changing of the Guard. Later, we visit elegant Kensington Palace, a royal residence rich in history and closely associated with Queen Victoria and Diana, Princess of Wales. This evening is yours to enjoy as you wish. You may choose to join an optional pre-theatre dinner at a classic London restaurant, followed by an unforgettable West End performance. B

Windsor Castle and a Dinner Cruise

Today we journey to the royal town of Windsor, home to magnificent Windsor Castle, the oldest and largest occupied castle in the world and a cherished residence of the Royal Family. With its grand State Apartments, historic chapels, and beautifully maintained grounds, Windsor offers a fascinating glimpse into centuries of royal tradition. This evening, we gather for a memorable farewell dinner cruise on the River Thames. As we glide past London's illuminated landmarks, we reflect on our journey and celebrate the friendships, experiences, and unforgettable moments shared. It's Thanksgiving Day, and there is so much to be thankful for. B | D

November 27, 2026 - Friday

Traveling home

All too soon, our adventure comes to an end. Transfer to Heathrow airport in plenty of time to check in for our flight and to clear security. Enjoy some last-minute duty-free shopping before boarding and flying back to the United States. B | Meals during flights.

The Champagne Region — A Toast to French Tradition

For those who wish to experience one of France's most celebrated regions, this optional excursion to the heart of Champagne offers a day filled with beauty, history, and unforgettable flavor.

Our journey begins in the elegant city of Reims, known as the capital of the Champagne region and the traditional coronation site of French kings. Here, we visit the magnificent Reims Cathedral, a masterpiece of Gothic architecture whose soaring ceilings and luminous stained glass inspire awe and reflection. Following our visit, we enjoy a relaxed lunch in Reims, savoring regional cuisine in charming surroundings.

We then continue to the peaceful village of Hautvillers, where Dom Pérignon, the visionary monk often called the "father of Champagne," perfected the art of sparkling wine. This quiet hillside village offers beautiful views over rolling vineyards and a true sense of the region's heritage.

Our day concludes in nearby Épernay, home to some of the world's most prestigious Champagne houses. Here, we visit the renowned Champagne Mercier, descending into remarkable underground cellars carved deep beneath the earth. During our guided tour, we learn about the careful craftsmanship behind every bottle, followed by a delightful tasting of this celebrated sparkling wine.

This special day offers a wonderful opportunity to experience the elegance, tradition, and timeless charm of Champagne—a true highlight of your journey through France.

Perfume-making Class & Hands-on French Pastry Classes

For those interested in a more personal and hands-on experience, an optional perfume-making workshop or French pastry class can be arranged individually during your time in Paris. These special experiences offer a wonderful opportunity to immerse yourself in cherished French traditions—whether creating your own signature fragrance or learning the art of crafting delicate pastries under the guidance of skilled artisans.

Because these experiences are arranged privately, they can be scheduled according to your interests and availability. Our team will be happy to assist with recommendations and arrangements, ensuring a seamless and enjoyable experience. Please note that these optional activities are not included in the tour package and are subject to availability and an additional cost.

Pre-Theatre Dinner and a West End Show

For a truly memorable London evening, you may wish to join us for a traditional pre-theatre dinner, followed by a performance in London's celebrated West End, one of the world's great centers of theater.

Our evening begins at The Wellington, a historic and welcoming pub on The Strand that has been part of London's story for more than 150 years. Rich in character and tradition, The Wellington offers a warm and relaxed setting where you can enjoy classic British cuisine, from hearty pies to timeless pub favorites, all served with genuine hospitality. Its central location, just steps from Covent Garden and the theatre district, makes it the perfect place to gather and share conversation before the curtain rises.

Following dinner, we make our way to one of London's beautiful theatres for an unforgettable West End performance. Whether it is a beloved musical, a classic play, or a dazzling new production, the experience of live theatre in London is truly special. The elegance of the theatre, the energy of the performers, and the shared excitement of the audience create an atmosphere unlike any other.

This optional evening offers a wonderful opportunity to experience London's rich theatrical tradition—an inspiring and joyful highlight of your time in this remarkable city.
