

WOMEN OF THE MIDWEST
Travel Solo Together

NEW ENGLAND
HERITAGE RAILS & RUSTIC TRAIL
with Women of the Midwest

September 26 - October 4, 2026

Dear Traveler,

I am delighted to invite you to join me on a very special journey created exclusively for women who share a love of discovery, comfort, and connection. This thoughtfully designed tour brings together everything that makes travel so enriching — beautiful destinations, meaningful experiences, and the joy of new friendships.

Together, we'll wander the cobblestone streets of historic Boston, explore the charm of Woodstock, Vermont, breathe in the mountain air of New Hampshire's White Mountains, and feel the ocean breeze along the rocky coast of Portland, Maine. Along the way, we'll savor local flavors — from a maple sugar farm to a lobster farewell dinner by the sea — and enjoy the comfort of hand-selected hotels, each offering a two-night stay so you can truly relax and feel at home.

Our adventure includes two scenic rail journeys, a cruise through Casco Bay, visits to fascinating landmarks like Faneuil Hall, the JFK Presidential Library, and the Portland Head Lighthouse — all brought to life by our professional Tour Director who ensures every detail is seamless and every moment memorable.

This is more than a vacation — it's an opportunity to share laughter, stories, and a sense of wonder with a small circle of like-minded women. Whether you're traveling solo or with a friend, you'll feel the warmth of belonging from the moment we meet.

I would be honored to have you join me for this remarkable journey through New England's most beautiful landscapes and timeless traditions. Let's make new memories together — ones that will stay with us long after we've returned home.

With warm regards,
CarolAnn Condon

Arrive in Boston

Welcome to Boston, where our New England adventure begins! Upon arrival, you'll be met by your friendly Tour Director and transferred to your lovely Boston-area hotel for a relaxing two-night stay. This evening, settle in and perhaps join your fellow travelers for dinner or a stroll through this historic, walkable city filled with character and wonderful restaurants. As the evening lights twinkle over the harbor, you'll feel the excitement of the days ahead. A warm welcome and easy laughter will set the tone for the friendships that begin tonight.

to one of America's most beloved leaders. As you wander the exhibits overlooking the sea, it's easy to feel inspired by Kennedy's optimism and vision. Tonight, gather for a Welcome Dinner, where stories and smiles flow freely — the perfect start to our shared adventure. B | D

September 27, 2026 - Sunday

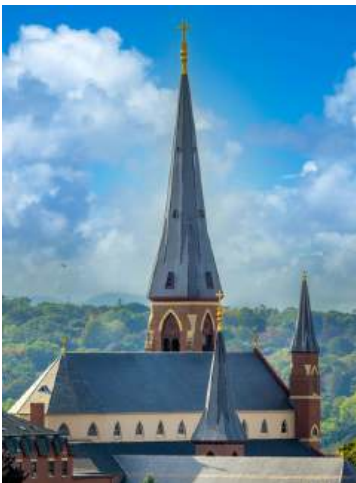

Boston Sightseeing

After breakfast, experience the heart of Boston on a guided city tour. Walk through history at Boston Common, see the Old North Church, and visit Faneuil Hall Marketplace and Quincy Market, bustling with shops, local treats, and lively street performers. Later, enjoy a touching visit to the John F. Kennedy Presidential Library & Museum, a moving tribute

September 28, 2026 - Monday

Boston to Burlington, Vermont

Today we journey north through rolling hills and picturesque countryside to the storybook village of Woodstock, Vermont, often called "America's Prettiest Town." Visit the Billings Farm & Museum, a beautifully preserved working dairy farm that captures the charm of rural life in the 1890s. The drive itself is a delight — winding country roads, covered bridges, and bursts of autumn color around every turn. This afternoon, we arrive in Burlington, nestled along sparkling Lake Champlain, for a two-night stay. Enjoy dinner with new friends or simply relax with a glass of wine as the sun sets over the water. B

September 29, 2026 - Tuesday

Vermont Delights

Discover Vermont's artistry and flavor today. We'll visit the acclaimed Shelburne Museum, a fascinating blend of art, history, and Americana displayed across charming historic buildings. Then, follow the scent of apples and cinnamon to the Cold Hollow Cider Mill, where you'll enjoy samples of their famous cold-pressed cider. The day's sweetness continues at Ben & Jerry's Ice Cream Factory, where fun, whimsy, and irresistible flavors reign supreme. Return to your hotel as twilight softens the mountains, perhaps sharing stories from the day over a cozy dinner or a walk along Burlington's vibrant waterfront. B

September 30, 2026 - Wednesday

Maple Magic & the White Mountains

This morning, visit a Maple Sugar Farm to see how Vermont's liquid gold is made, from tree tapping to syrup tasting. It's a true taste of local life and tradition. Later, climb aboard the Granite

State Scenic Railroad for an old-fashioned train ride beside the sparkling Pemigewasset River. The journey offers classic New England scenery — forested slopes, charming villages, and the crisp scent of pine in the air. Continue into New Hampshire's White Mountains, a region that feels lifted from a postcard. Settle in for a two-night stay, and this evening, enjoy a hearty group dinner, sharing laughter and stories over a delicious meal. B | D

explore Old Port, where cobblestone streets, boutiques, and inviting cafés make for a perfect afternoon. Later, we'll visit the famous Portland Head Lighthouse, one of the most photographed landmarks in the country — and for good reason. As the sun dips low, we'll gather for a joyful Lobster Farewell Dinner, toasting new friendships and unforgettable memories. It's the perfect ending to a perfect week together. B | D

October 1, 2026 - Thursday

The Majesty of Mount Washington

A day for awe and beauty! Ride the historic Mount Washington Cog Railway, the first mountain-climbing train in the world, to the summit of New England's highest peak. The sweeping views from the top are unforgettable — on a clear day you can see all the way to Canada. After descending, spend time in North Conway, where quaint shops and cafés invite exploration. Later, we'll journey along the scenic Kancamagus Highway, where each turn reveals new bursts of autumn color, covered bridges, and sparkling mountain streams. Tonight, relax as you please — perhaps with a good book or a quiet chat by the fire. B

October 4, 2026 - Sunday

Homeward Bound

After breakfast, we'll travel back to Boston, reflecting on all the beauty and laughter we've shared along the way. The fall colors, the taste of warm cider, and the joy of companionship will linger long after we return home. As you say goodbye to new friends, you'll carry with you a heart full of gratitude and memories that sparkle like the autumn sun. B

From Mountains to the Maine Coast

Today, we trade mountain vistas for ocean views as we journey toward the rocky coast of Maine. Along the way, visit the grand Victoria Mansion, an exquisite example of Victorian elegance and craftsmanship. Arriving in Portland, you'll immediately feel the charm of this coastal city with its blend of history, art, and seaside flair. Enjoy a leisurely two-night stay, where gentle sea breezes and the distant call of gulls remind you that the Atlantic is just steps away. Perhaps take a sunset stroll along the harbor or enjoy dinner at one of Portland's delightful waterfront restaurants. B
