Tuscan Delights

with Women of the Midwest

October 17-26, 2027

Ciao, Women of the Midwest!

Italy has a way of calling us back... My first visit was love at first sight, and I've been dreaming of returning. I'm Lisa Anderson, your Women of the Midwest Ambassador, and I truly can't wait to share Tuscany, a very special place with you. Over the years, so many of our travelers have said, "I want to go back... but this time I want to slow down, stay longer, and really live Tuscany." Tuscan Delights was created for that very reason—a beautifully handcrafted journey designed not just to visit Tuscany, but to experience it in an even deeper way.

In the fall of 2027, we return to one of Italy's most breathtaking regions—when the countryside is at its loveliest, the light turns golden, and the days feel refreshingly comfortable as the vineyards glow with the colors of harvest. It's a season made for lingering lunches, scenic drives, and savoring Tuscany at a slower pace. Our home for the week is the charming Villa Casagrande in Figline Valdarno, perfectly located between Florence and Chianti, offering the comfort of a peaceful retreat with easy access to Tuscany's most treasured towns and experiences.

From the masterpieces of Florence to the iconic sights of Pisa, the storybook charm of Lucca, and the towers of San Gimignano, each day brings something unforgettable—yet never rushed. We've also made room for what matters most: time to relax, to treat yourself, and to simply enjoy being in Italy. Whether it's a leisurely afternoon at the villa, a hands-on pasta-making class, or savoring local wines and cheeses in the countryside, every detail is thoughtfully arranged with comfort and joy in mind.

And of course, Tuscany wouldn't be complete without its most delicious traditions—like truffle hunting in San Miniato, tasting Brunello in Montalcino, and enjoying Pecorino in Pienza. This is the kind of trip where you come home with incredible memories, new friendships, and the feeling that you truly lived Tuscany. I can't wait to share it with you.

Begin your day with a hearty breakfast at the villa before setting off on a scenic drive through Tuscany's postcard-perfect countryside. Rolling hills, vineyards, and silvery olive groves accompany us as we journey toward Montalcino, a charming medieval hill town best known for producing one of Italy's most celebrated wines: Brunello di Montalcino. Michelangelo & Masterpieces
This morning we board our private motor-coach and return to Florence, the cradle of the Renaissance and one of the most inspiring cities in the world. With our local guide, we step into a place where art is not simply admired—it is felt. Our day begins at the Accademia Gallery, home to Michelangelo's breathtaking David. Standing before this masterpiece is unforgettable. Carved from a single block of marble, David is far more than a statue—it is a symbol of courage, beauty, and human potential. Michelangelo was not only a sculptor, but a visionary who shaped the Renaissance with his genius, discipline, and deep understanding of the human spirit. His work changed art forever, bringing marble to life with emotion, strength, and grace. Many say you don't truly understand Florence until you've looked into David's eyes. Next, we visit the magnificent Basilica of Santa Croce, a sacred and historic church filled with beauty and meaning. It is also the final resting place of some of Italy's greatest minds, including Michelangelo, Galileo, and Machiavelli—a powerful reminder of the brilliance that once walked these very streets. Lunch is another "masterpiece of Florence." Caffè Gilli awaits. Florence's oldest café (est. 1733), is a beloved spot for an elegant Tuscan lunch in a beautiful historic setting. After lunch, enjoy free time to explore at your own pace. Stroll along the Arno River, browse shops, or linger at a café in a lively piazza. Later this afternoon, we return to the villa. B | L

October 25, 2027 - Monday

Towers, Tastings & Toasts
Wake up to a hearty breakfast and get ready for a day full of laughter, flavor, and Tuscan charm! This morning we travel to San Gimignano, a picturesque medieval hill town and UNESCO World Heritage site, often called the "Manhattan of the Middle Ages" for its striking skyline of stone towers. Enjoy free time to wander its cobblestone lanes, browse local shops, and take in sweeping countryside views. Next, we head to a welcoming Tuscan estate where the fun truly begins. During a special winery visit, you'll learn the essentials of wine tasting—understanding the grape, discovering aromas, pairing wine with food, and even which glass is best for each pour. We'll also enjoy an olive oil and truffle oil tasting, served the most delicious way: with fresh bread. Then it's time to sit down for a fabulous lunch and wine tasting, raising a joyful toast to an unforgettable journey. Cin-Cin! By day's end, you'll return with happy memories, new favorites, and the kind of stories that make Tuscany stay with you long after you're home. B | T | L
