August 2–17, 2027

Dear Fellow Travelers,

Some journeys are simply too wonderful to miss. And when three extraordinary countries come together in one beautiful adventure, how can we possibly resist?

I am absolutely delighted to invite you to join me as we discover the magic of Scandinavia! Denmark, Norway, and Sweden each have their own unique charm, and together they promise an unforgettable journey filled with beautiful scenery, fascinating traditions, royal treasures, and delightful surprises.

We'll begin in enchanting Copenhagen, where colorful canals, magnificent castles, and charming streets invite us to explore. We'll even try our hand at painting Royal Copenhagen porcelain, enjoy a traditional afternoon tea, and sail overnight to Norway. What a wonderful way to begin!

And then there's Norway! Imagine traveling through spectacular mountain scenery aboard the famous Bergen Railway, cruising among breathtaking fjords, and discovering the colorful waterfront of Bergen. We'll explore centuries-old traditions, admire beautiful glass artistry, and enjoy a little musical magic in the home of composer Edvard Grieg.

Our adventure continues to Sweden, where Stockholm awaits with its elegant waterfronts, cobblestone streets, magnificent architecture, and fascinating royal history. And yes, we'll even have a little fun with ABBA!

But here's what I'm looking forward to most: sharing these experiences with you. Because the true magic of traveling with Women of the Midwest isn't just in the places we visit. It's in the laughter around the dinner table, the conversations along the way, the unexpected discoveries, and the wonderful friendships that make every journey so special.

I hope you'll come along. Scandinavia is calling, and I can't wait to discover it with you!

With warmest wishes,
Terrill Spencer, Women of the Midwest Ambassador
