PARIS & LONDON

An Elegant Escape

with Women of the Midwest!

September 13–24, 2027

Dear Women of the Midwest,

There is something timeless about Paris and London—two of the world's most beloved cities, rich in history, beauty, and tradition. I am truly excited to invite you to join me as we experience them together in a way that is thoughtful, comfortable, and filled with meaningful moments.

This carefully crafted journey brings together the elegance of Paris and the grandeur of London, offering the perfect balance of iconic landmarks, cultural treasures, and time to simply enjoy where we are. We'll stand before remarkable places like Notre-Dame, the Louvre, Westminster Abbey, and Windsor Castle—sites we've read about and dreamed of seeing. We'll stroll through charming neighborhoods, admire beautiful architecture, and enjoy wonderful meals that reflect the character and flavor of each destination.

September is a lovely time to discover these two magnificent cities. Imagine strolling through Parisian gardens, visiting Monet's enchanting home in Giverny, admiring the grandeur of Versailles, and enjoying a leisurely cruise along the Seine. In London, royal traditions, fascinating artisan workshops, historic neighborhoods, and beautiful parks await. With five nights in each city, we'll have time to discover the highlights and enjoy those wonderful little moments that make traveling so special.

One of the highlights will be traveling between these great capitals aboard the Eurostar, gliding beneath the English Channel.

What makes this journey especially meaningful is sharing it together. This itinerary has been designed with care, allowing us to explore at an enjoyable pace, with time to relax, reflect, and savor every moment.

I hope you'll join me as we discover Paris and London together, creating memories and friendships that will last long after we return home.

With warmest anticipation,
Pam Hennings, Ambassador, Women of the Midwest

Traveling to Paris

Our elegant escape begins today as we board our overnight flight to Paris, France. Settle in, relax, and look forward to twelve wonderful days discovering two of the world's most extraordinary cities. From Parisian boulevards and magnificent art collections to royal palaces, charming neighborhoods, and London's timeless traditions, a remarkable journey awaits. In-flight meals

September 14, 2027 – Tuesday

Bienvenue à Paris—the City of Light!

Upon arrival, our private motor coach and English-speaking guide welcome us to France. We begin with a panoramic introduction to this magnificent capital, including photo stops at the Eiffel Tower and the grand Arc de Triomphe. We'll also visit the historic Notre-Dame Cathedral, one of Paris's most treasured landmarks, beautifully restored after the devastating fire of 2019. For lunch, something especially Parisian awaits. At historic Le Procope, established in 1686 in the charming Saint-Germain district, we'll gather in a private room for a wonderful welcome meal. Once frequented by celebrated writers, philosophers, and intellectuals, this legendary restaurant is the perfect place to begin our French adventure. After lunch, we'll check into our hotel, our home for the next five nights. The remainder of the afternoon is yours to relax or enjoy your first stroll through Paris. L

September 15, 2027 – Wednesday

Art, Architecture & the Seine

Today is devoted to the extraordinary art, architecture, and beauty of Paris. Our morning begins at the world-renowned Louvre Museum, once a royal palace and now home to one of the world's greatest art collections. We'll discover remarkable masterpieces, including the mysterious Mona Lisa, magnificent sculptures, and works spanning centuries of artistic achievement. Then it's time for a relaxing Seine River cruise. From the water, Paris reveals another side of its beauty as we glide past elegant bridges, historic buildings, and some of the city's most celebrated landmarks. Lunch brings another special experience at a classic Parisian restaurant, with the beautiful Belle Époque surroundings of Angelina on Rue de Rivoli among the possibilities. This afternoon, we'll visit magnificent Sainte-Chapelle, a 13th-century royal chapel celebrated for its extraordinary stained-glass windows. Here, soaring panels of brilliant color tell biblical stories in what feels like a breathtaking cathedral of light. Afterward, our private coach returns us to the hotel, with the evening at leisure. September 16, 2027 – Thursday

Paris — A Day to Call Your Own

Today is yours to enjoy Paris exactly as you wish. Perhaps visit the Musée d'Orsay, where Impressionist masterpieces by Monet, Renoir, and Degas fill a magnificent former railway station. Explore Montmartre's winding streets, discover little galleries and charming cafés, or browse the elegant boutiques and fascinating antique shops for which Paris is famous. You might join a perfume-making workshop, take a French pastry class, or simply settle into a sidewalk café and watch Parisian life unfold. We'll gather again for dinner at a traditional Parisian brasserie, where classic French cuisine, lively conversation, and beautiful surroundings make for a delightful evening together. B | D

September 17, 2027 – Friday

Monet's Garden & the Palace of Versailles

Today brings together two of France's most extraordinary treasures. Our morning takes us to Giverny, where we'll visit the beloved home and gardens of Claude Monet. Here, the great Impressionist created his own living masterpiece, with flower-filled pathways, a Japanese-inspired water garden, and the famous lily pond that inspired some of his most celebrated paintings. We'll enjoy lunch at Moulin de Fourges, a charming restaurant housed in an old watermill amid the peaceful Normandy countryside. Then we continue to the magnificent Palace of Versailles, once the residence of Louis XIV, the Sun King. With our guide, discover the lavish royal apartments, the spectacular Hall of Mirrors, and fascinating stories of life at the French court. There will also be time to admire the famous gardens, with their elegant pathways, sculptures, and grand perspectives. We return to Paris in the late afternoon for an evening at leisure. B | L

September 18, 2027 – Saturday

Paris at Leisure or Champagne Country

Another wonderful day in Paris is yours to enjoy. Explore the fashionable Marais district, browse a neighborhood market, or visit a favorite museum. Alternatively, join an optional excursion into the beautiful Champagne countryside. We'll visit historic Reims and its magnificent Gothic cathedral, where generations of French kings were crowned. After lunch, continue through picturesque countryside to Hautvillers, associated with the famous monk Dom Pérignon, before visiting Épernay for a guided Champagne house tour and tasting. This evening, we'll gather for a special farewell to Paris. As the city sparkles after sunset, we'll board our dinner cruise on the Seine. Drift past illuminated monuments, graceful bridges, and the unmistakable silhouette of the Eiffel Tower. Paris by night—what a beautiful way to say au revoir. B | D

Liberty London — Tudor Elegance

A Thames Farewell

September 19, 2027 – Sunday
From Paris to London by Eurostar
After breakfast, we say au revoir to Paris and transfer to the station for our journey aboard the high-speed Eurostar. Traveling beneath the English Channel, we'll make our way from France to England in approximately two and a half hours. It's a wonderful way to travel between two of Europe's greatest capitals. Welcome to London! Upon arrival, our local guide greets us before we enjoy a traditional Sunday roast lunch at a charming British pub in the heart of the city. A proper English welcome! This afternoon, we'll discover London's magnificent landmarks on a panoramic city tour, taking in the grandeur of Westminster, the Houses of Parliament, Buckingham Palace, and other celebrated sights. Later, we'll check into the comfortable Meliá White House, our home for five nights, conveniently located near beautiful Regent's Park. The evening is yours to relax and settle into London life. B | L

September 20, 2027 – Monday
Royal London
Today, we step into the fascinating world of British royalty. Our morning begins at magnificent Westminster Abbey, where monarchs have been crowned for nearly a thousand years. Discover its extraordinary history, royal tombs, beautiful architecture, and the famous Poets' Corner, where some of Britain's greatest literary figures are remembered. We continue to Buckingham Palace, hoping to witness the celebrated Changing of the Guard, one of London's most colorful traditions. Later, we'll visit elegant Kensington Palace, closely associated with Queen Victoria and Diana, Princess of Wales. Explore the historic royal rooms and discover stories of the people who once called this beautiful palace home. For those wishing to add another special British tradition, an optional afternoon tea at The Rubens at the Palace may be available. This evening, you might choose to enjoy dinner at a classic London restaurant followed by an optional West End theater performance. After all, a night at the theater is one of London's great pleasures. B

September 21, 2027 – Tuesday
Beautiful Fabrics & Remarkable Women
Today celebrates London's fascinating blend of craftsmanship, history, and the women who helped shape this extraordinary city. We'll begin with a visit to Liberty London, the celebrated department store housed in its magnificent Tudor-style building. Famous for its distinctive fabrics, beautiful prints, and unusual treasures, Liberty is a London institution—and a delight to explore. Next, something truly special awaits at one of Britain's most respected embroidery houses. During our behind-the-scenes studio visit, we'll discover the remarkable artistry behind intricate hand embroidery, from royal ceremonial garments to exquisite couture creations. We'll enjoy lunch at a traditional London pub before discovering another side of the city on our Women of Bloomsbury walking tour. Through the elegant streets and garden squares of this historic neighborhood, we'll hear stories of remarkable women whose creativity, determination, and independent thinking left their mark on British literature, art, and society. The evening is yours to enjoy London at your own pace. B | L

September 22, 2027 – Wednesday
London at Leisure
Today, London is yours! Perhaps wander through the colorful stalls of Borough Market, explore the lively streets of Covent Garden, visit the British Museum, or enjoy the elegant shops and cafés of Marylebone. London is a city made for exploring, with fascinating museums, beautiful parks, historic neighborhoods, and unexpected discoveries around almost every corner. For those wishing to venture beyond the capital, an optional excursions offers a different taste of England. Discover the mysterious prehistoric stone circle of Stonehenge and the beautiful Georgian city of Bath on a full-day adventure. B

September 23, 2027 – Thursday
Windsor Castle, Eton & a Fond Farewell
On our final full day, we'll travel to Windsor, home to the spectacular Windsor Castle, the oldest and largest occupied castle in the world. Discover its grand State Apartments, magnificent architecture, and fascinating royal traditions. We'll also visit charming Eton, just across the River Thames from Windsor. Eton is, of course, famous for its prestigious college, where generations of British leaders have been educated. This evening, we'll gather for a memorable farewell dinner cruise on the River Thames. As London's illuminated landmarks pass by, we'll celebrate twelve wonderful days filled with art, history, royal palaces, beautiful neighborhoods, fascinating traditions, and the pleasure of discovering two remarkable cities together. What a beautiful journey it has been. B | D

September 24, 2027 – Friday
Traveling Home
All too soon, our adventure comes to an end. Transfer to Heathrow Airport with plenty of time to check in for our flight and clear security. B | Meals during flights.

OPTIONAL EXCURSIONS

PARIS

September 18, 2027 – Saturday
10 hours
Private guide, lunch (2-course meal with water & coffee or tea), Champagne tasting
$425 per person (minimum 8 participants)

The Champagne Region — A Toast to French Tradition

For those who wish to experience one of France's most celebrated regions, this optional excursion to the heart of Champagne offers a day filled with beauty, history, and unforgettable flavor.

Our journey begins in the elegant city of Reims, known as the capital of the Champagne region and the traditional coronation site of French kings. Here, we visit the magnificent Reims Cathedral, a masterpiece of Gothic architecture whose soaring ceilings and luminous stained glass inspire awe and reflection. Following our visit, we enjoy a relaxed lunch in Reims, savoring regional cuisine in charming surroundings.

We then continue to the peaceful village of Hautvillers, where Dom Pérignon, the visionary monk often called the "father of Champagne," perfected the art of sparkling wine. This quiet hillside village offers beautiful views over rolling vineyards and a true sense of the region's heritage.

Our day concludes in nearby Épernay, home to some of the world's most prestigious Champagne houses. Here, we visit the renowned Champagne Mercier, descending into remarkable underground cellars carved deep beneath the earth. During our guided tour, we learn about the careful craftsmanship behind every bottle, followed by a delightful tasting of this celebrated sparkling wine.

This special day offers a wonderful opportunity to experience the elegance, tradition, and timeless charm of Champagne—a true highlight of your journey through France.
